

Please Join Today!

Dear Friend,

Thank you for your interest in supporting the work done by the American Horse Defense Fund (AHDF) to create a better world for all equine species. If you own, ride or admire horses for your own pleasure OR you earn money from work with horses, you can easily give something back to these wonderful animals that so greatly enrich your life. We are the stewards of their care and fate and they are helpless to change how they are treated. Though you may handle your horses or ponies with great care and thought—sadly, many others do not. Still others cruelly exploit these wonderful animals for profit. By becoming a supporting member of AHDF you will help to make a positive difference in the lives of thousands of horses. PLEASE JOIN TODAY!

OUR MISSION

The American Horse Defense Fund's (AHDF) mission is to facilitate the protection, conservation, and humane treatment of members of all equine species. AHDF will address inhumane treatment of horses, ponies, donkeys, mules and burros, both wild and domesticated through education, advocacy and litigation when necessary in the state, federal and international arenas
